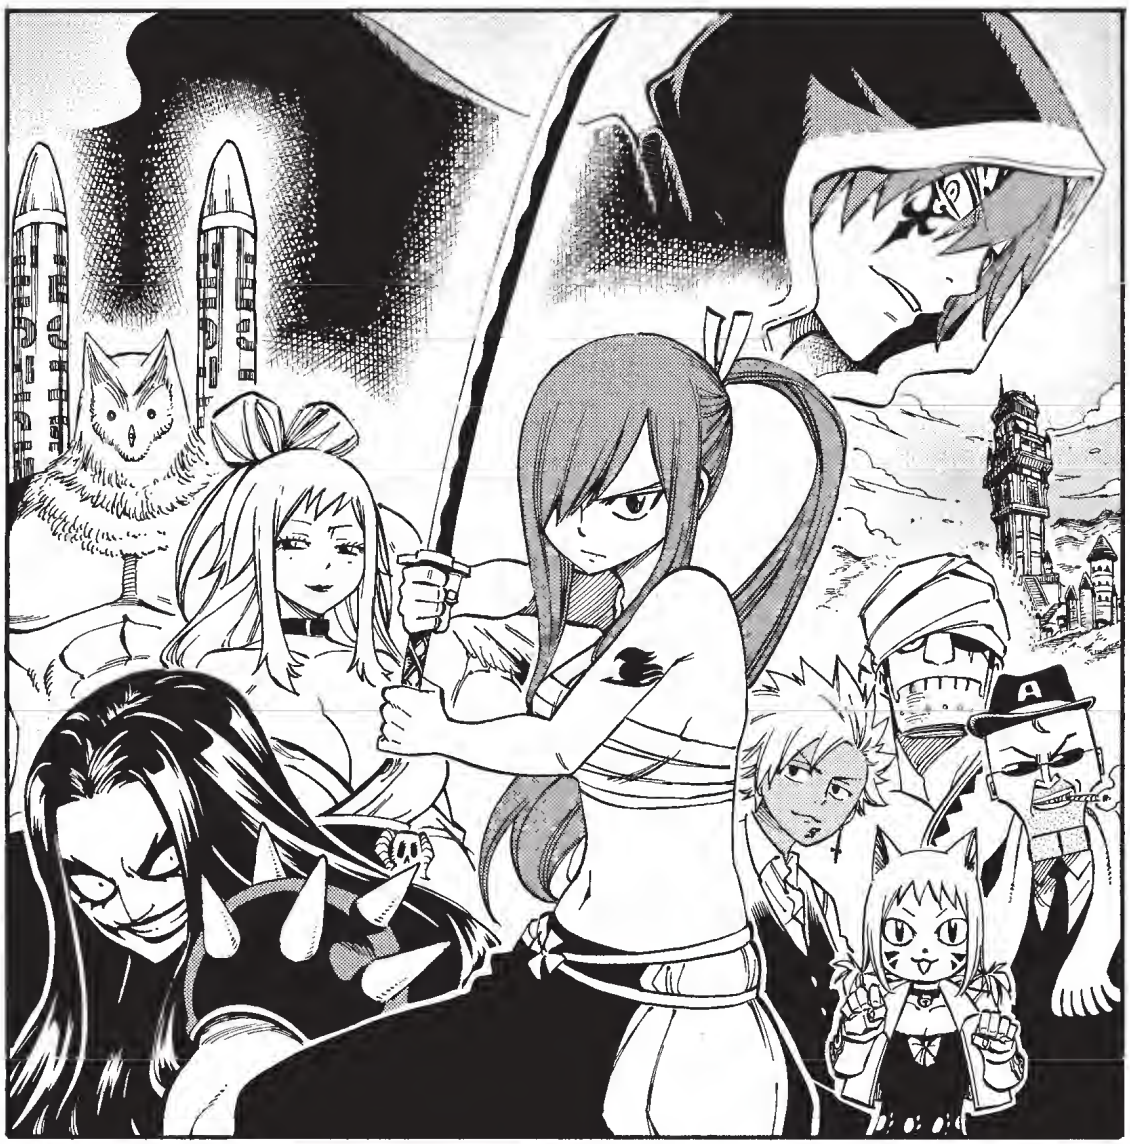
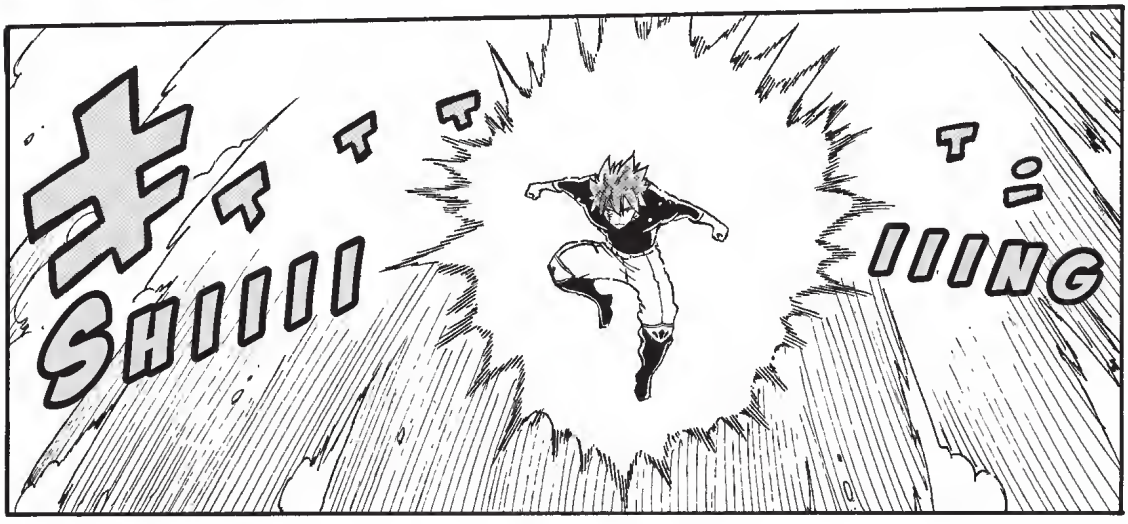
Chapter 534 The Vow of the Doors





STORY THUS FAR.

Zeref has sucked out Mavis's magic, Fairy Heart, and gained unlimited magic power for himself! His ultimate goal is to use the magic Neo Eclipse to turn back time 400 years so he can re-live his life. Knowing that Neo Eclipse would obliterate the world he lives in, Natsu puts everything he has into stopping Zeref. But, unable to stand against his older brother at the pinnacle of magic power, Natsu suffers a mortal wound. Meanwhile, Erza's group is fighting a desperate, bloody battle against the magic-eating dragon, Acnologia. This story has entered its final stage!!

That's too much power...
He split open the sea.

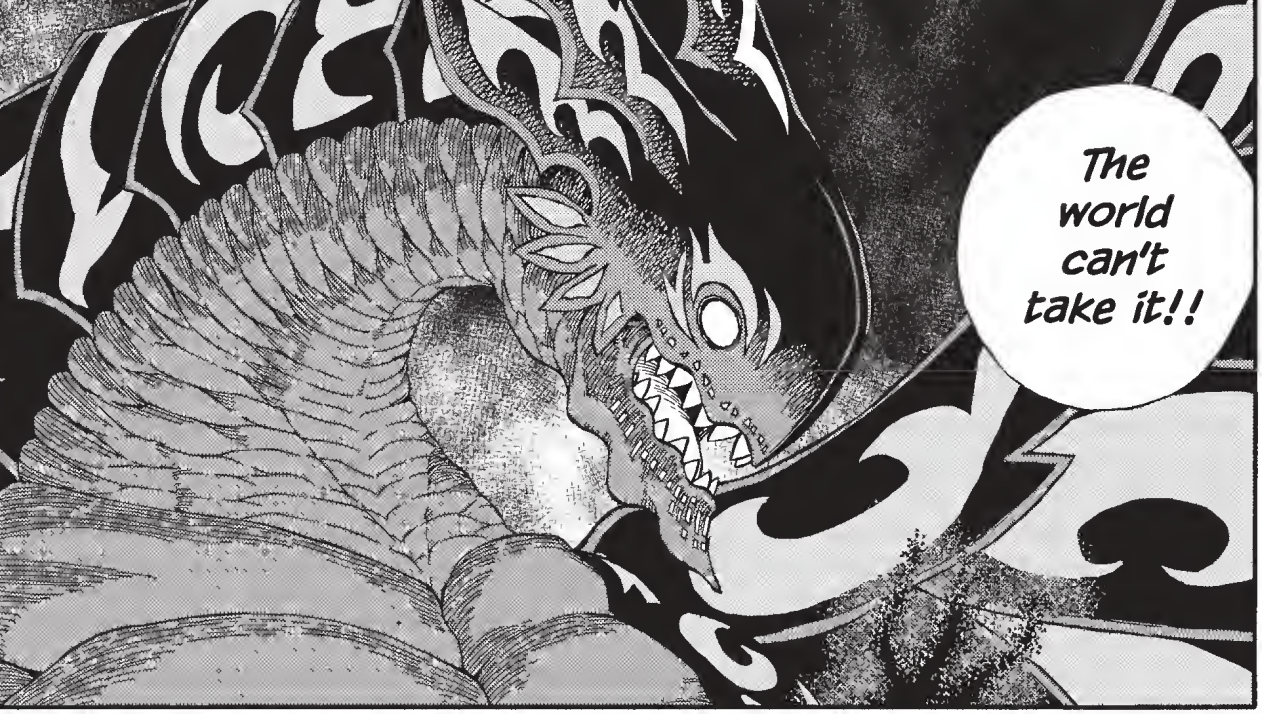
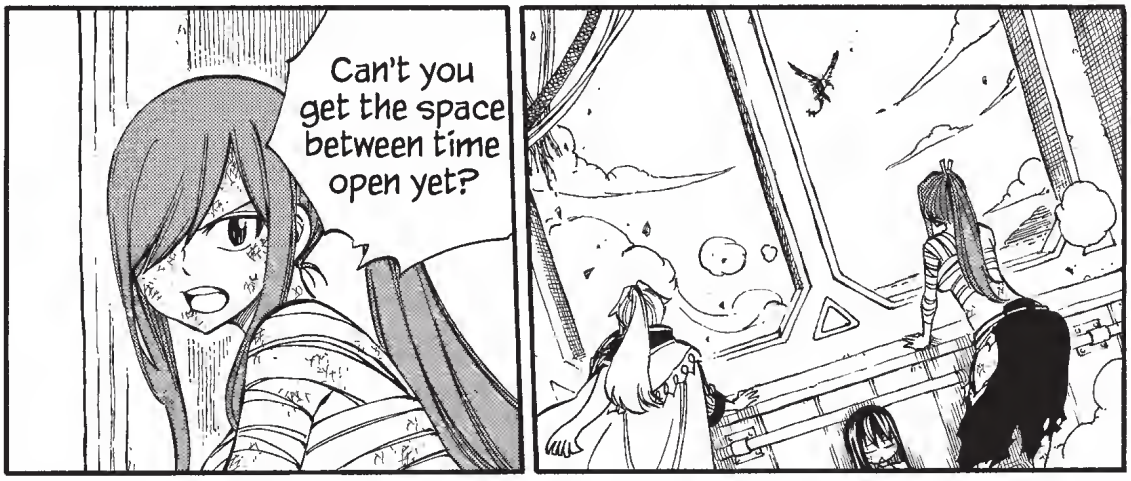
...I can't let this go on...

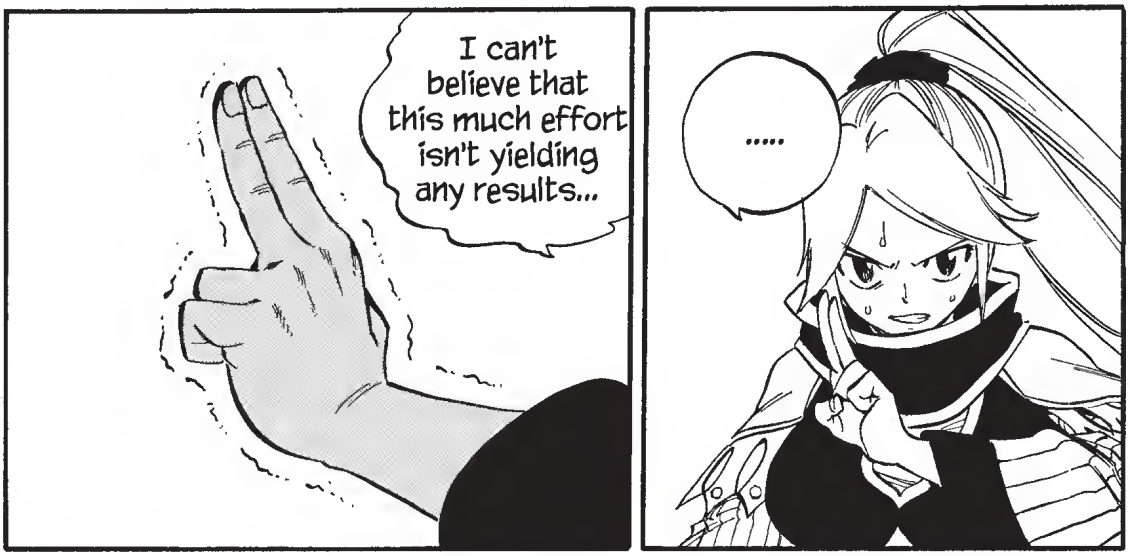
I thought I could buy them some time by just dodging his attacks, but...



The world can't take it!!

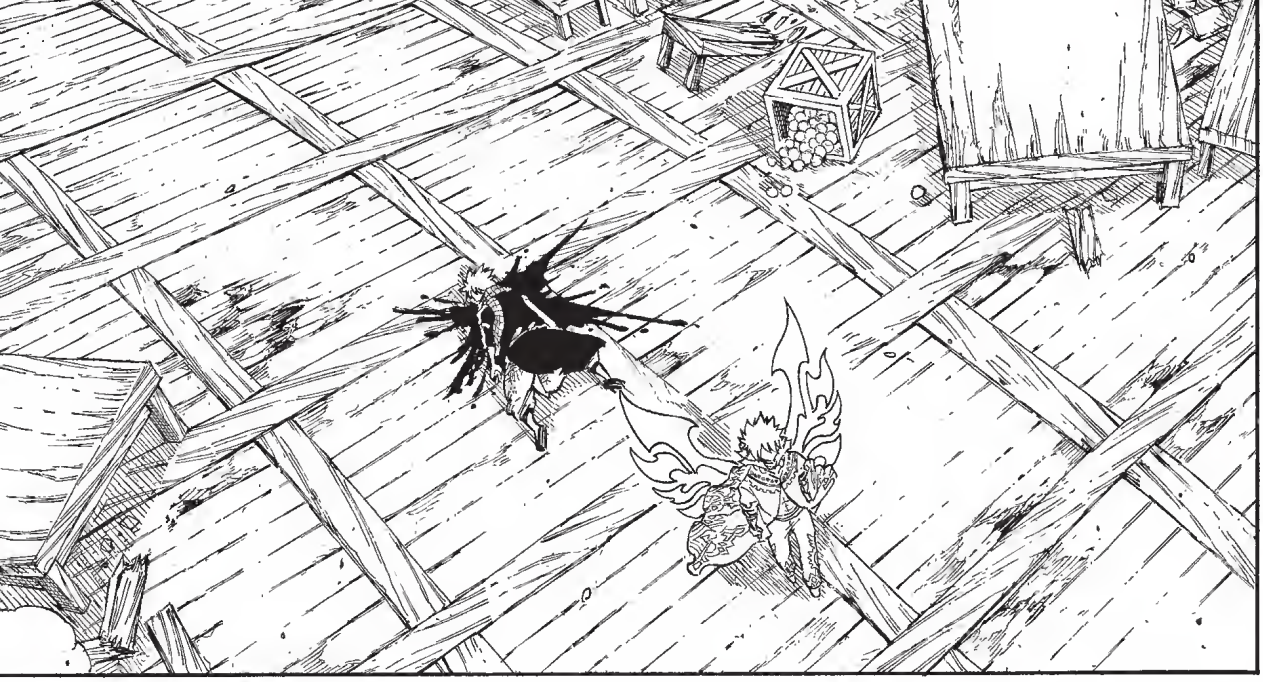


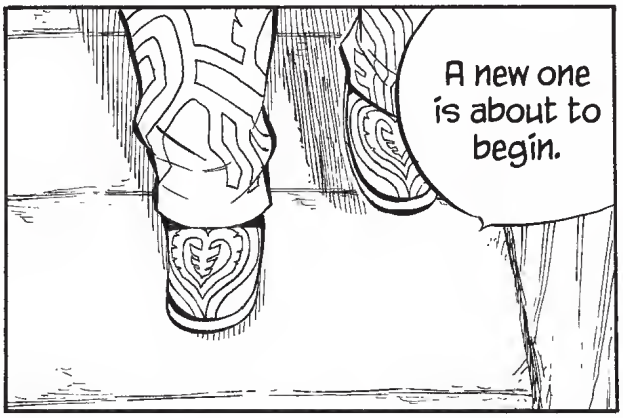
Can't you get the space between time open yet?



I can't believe that this much effort isn't yielding any results...
.....

Is someone deliberately keeping it closed?!



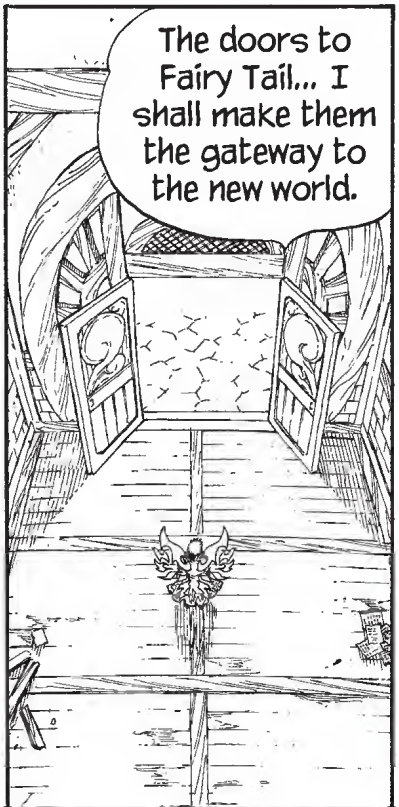


A new one is about to begin.

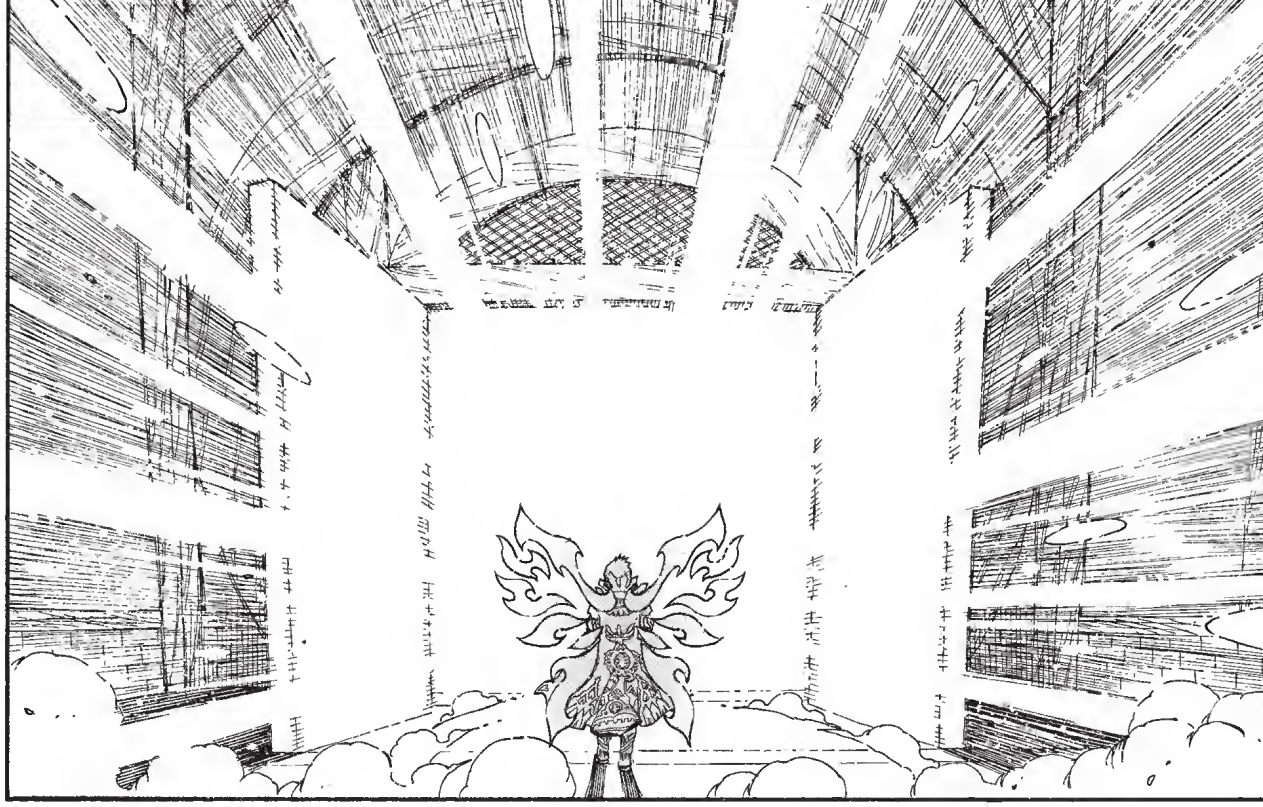
This world is over.

SHIINNG

I need but to connect the guild doors with the space between time.



The doors to Fairy Tail... I shall make them the gateway to the new world.



...and my new world will take its place.
...this world will crumble away...
The instant I pass through these doors...

Could the irony be any thicker?
And now they will be both the end and the beginning of worlds.
The Fairy Tail doors have seen countless adventurers depart... and return home.

I will retain my memories as they are...
...as I go back to remake my life.
And I will not make the same mistakes.
I shall save this world!

Did something happen to Natsu?
The letters are popping out!!

He's hurt badly... somewhere on his body!
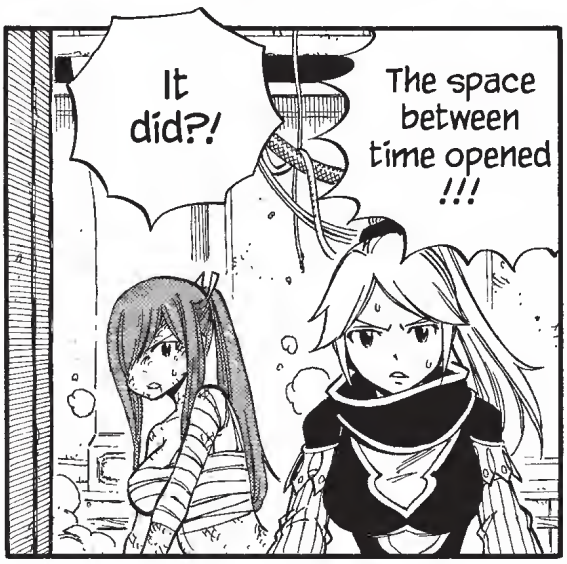
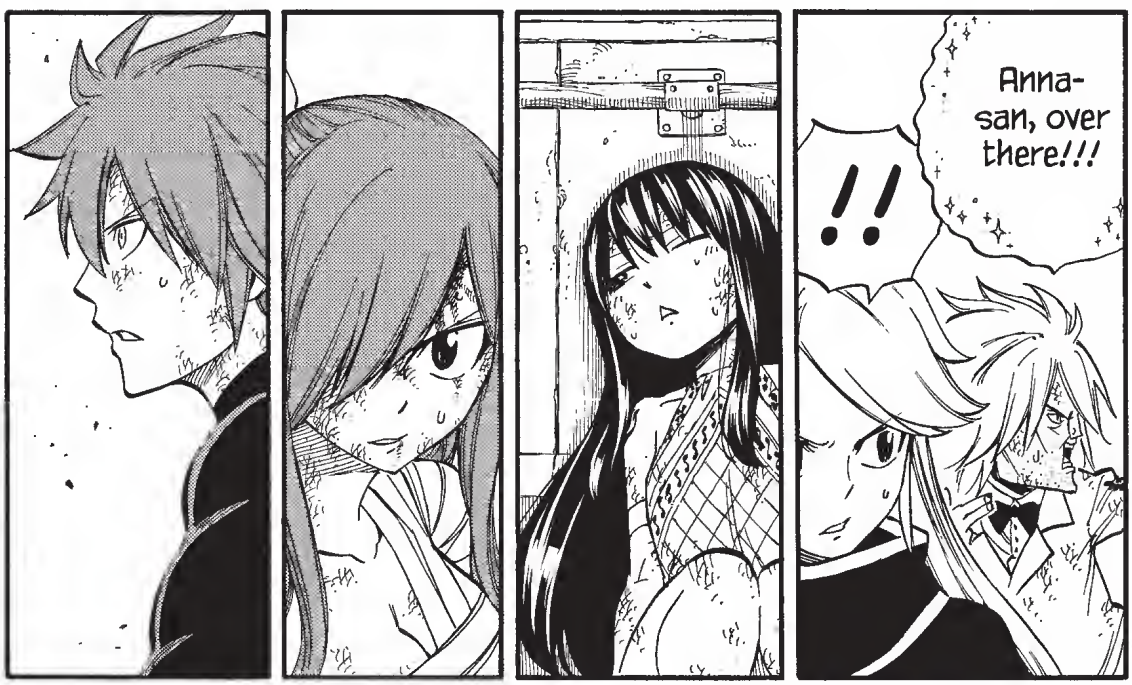
It's a part of his body...
Do you know where to overwrite it?
GRIP
Don't worry! I remember them all!!!
Rewrite the letters...?
They exploded so fast... I have no idea what letters they were!
No, not yet... I'll just rewrite the missing letters.

!!!

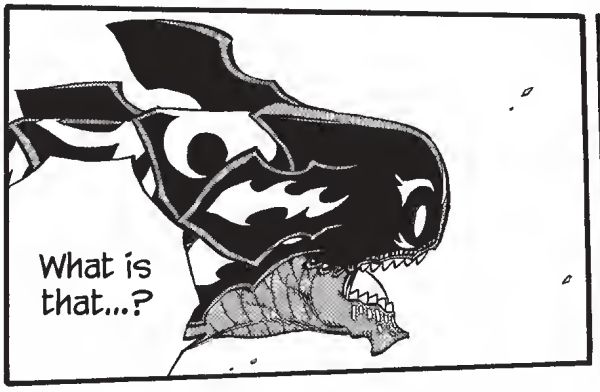
But... it wasn't my power that did it. Somebody else opened it.
Well, whatever caused it, what matters is that the door is open now!!



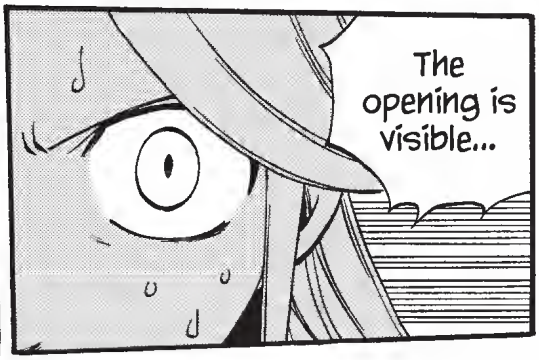
It did?!
The space between time opened !!!



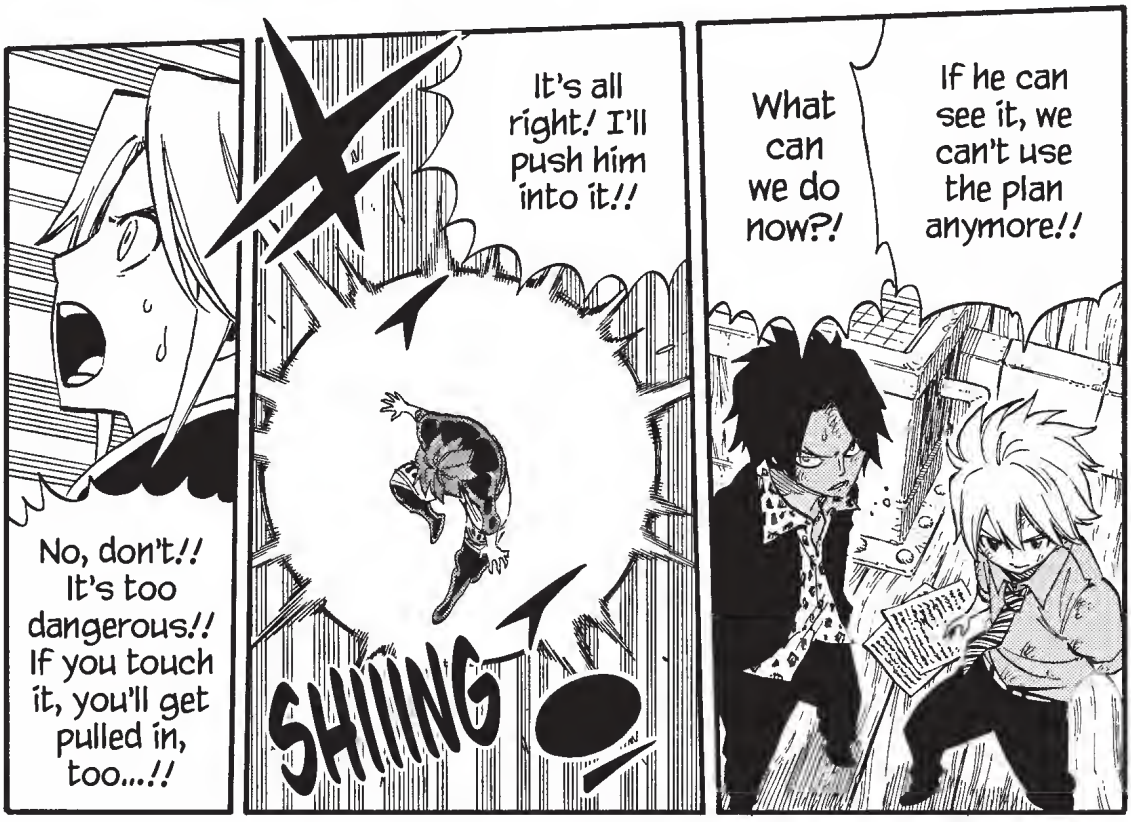
Anna-san, over there!!!
!!



What is that...?

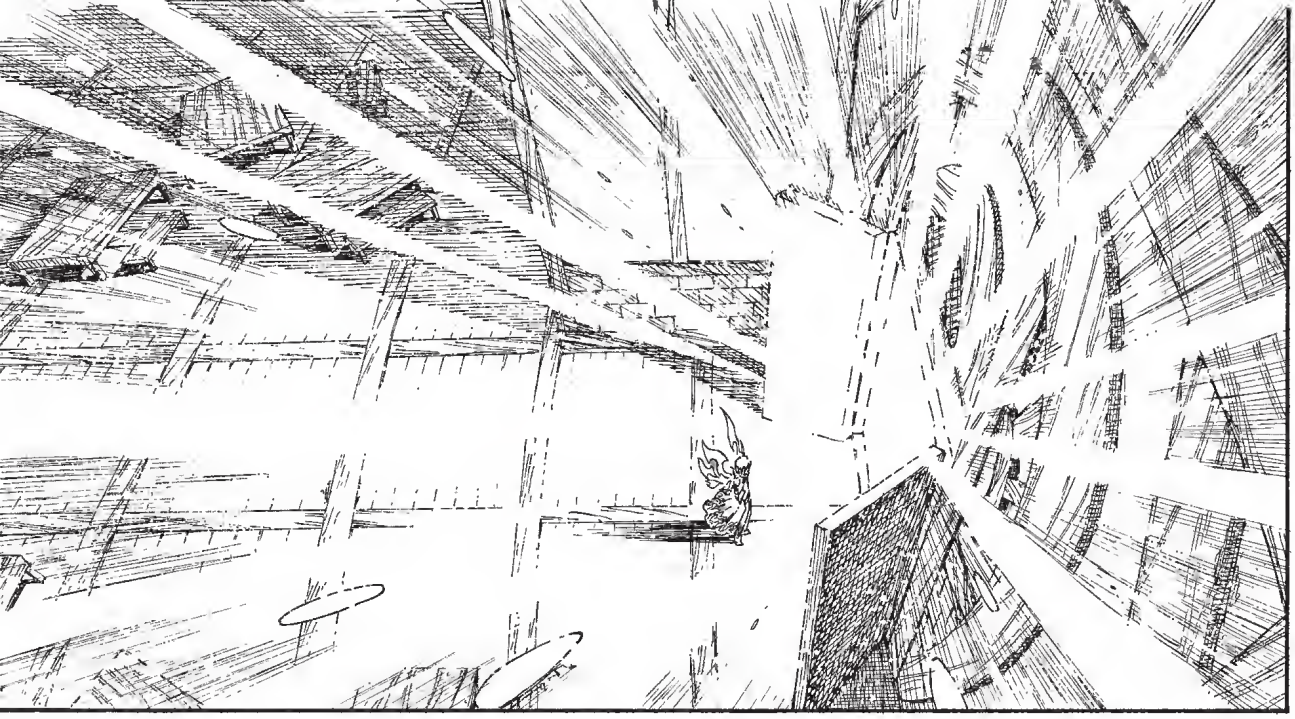


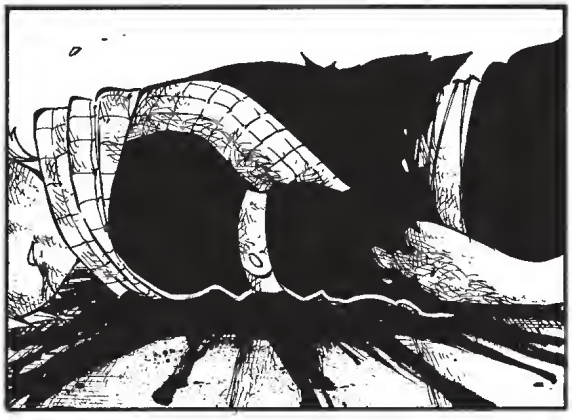
The opening is visible...

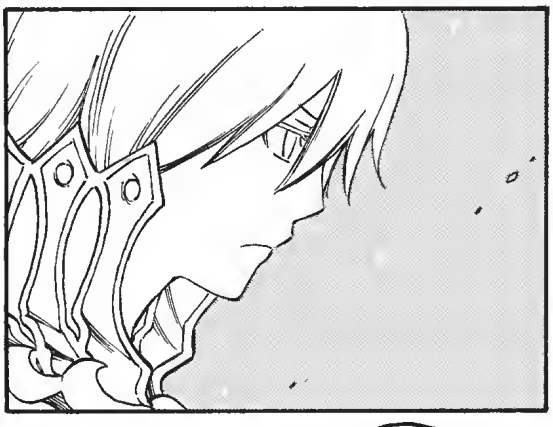


No, don't!! It's too dangerous!! If you touch it, you'll get pulled in, too...!!
It's all right! I'll push him into it!!
SHIIING
What can we do now?!
If he can see it, we can't use the plan anymore!!

GYUUUM
There is no other way!!!!
Jellal !!!!

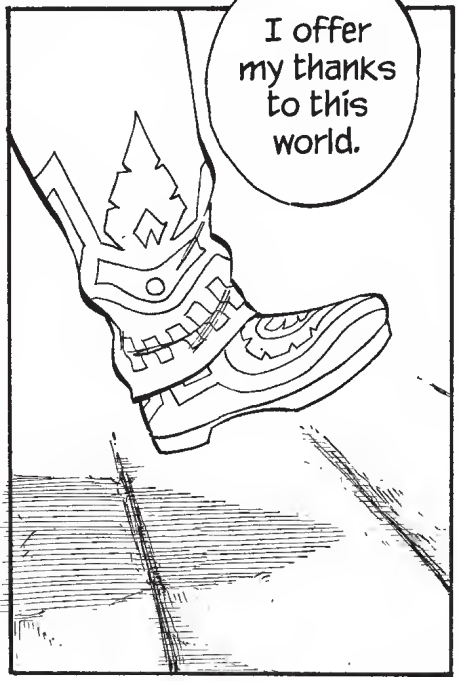






When ya go through those doors, ya make a vow.
A vow that you're gonna come back!

There's something that Gramps always said...



I offer my thanks to this world.
